DYNAMITE FAILS AND MEN ESCAPE

Cochise County Taxpayers Form Organization at Bisbee.

Bisbee, Ariz., Feb. 20.—That several of the employees at Lowell shaft of Copper Queen mines are not now in eternity is nothing short of a miracle. An employee who was carrying a large box of dynamite, dropped it down a shaft, a distance of 250 feet, where it landed beside a crowd of men waiting for the cage. The box burst open but the dynamite did not explode.

Decision has been rendered in the case of Hull vs. Finnerty, the question at issue being the ownership of land in Don Luis townsite. Homestead entry had been made on the land by Finnerty, claiming it to be agricultural land, while Hull appealed to the land office, maintaining that the land was not agricultural land. United States commissioner Taylor decided in favor of Finnerty.

The taxpayers of Cochise county met at the Copper Queen hotel and perfected an organization to be hereafter known as the Cochise County Taxpayers' association, whose purpose will be to devise means of raising revenue and taking care of all other details of this important feature of the government.

Much interesting data was collected and submitted at the meeting. Ground has been broken for the erection of the Knights of Columbus club house, which is to be a very imposing edifice. Total cost of building will be about $8000. Architect John Kelly has the work in hand. From a few members, the Columbus club has now increased to several hundred. The building will be directly opposite the Central public school.

Michael Coughlan and Miss Esther Levy were married by Judge High.

At the council meeting it was ascertained that the city of Bisbee has assets valued at $420,000. Owing to the heavy fall of snow, the Western Union wires were down from early morning yesterday until late afternoon.

Bisbee's population has been increased the past week as follows: Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Manning, upper Tombstone canyon, a daughter; to Mr. and Mrs. John Twomey, a son; to Mr. and Mrs. John Cosby, a daughter.
